DUTY FREE

Duty Free Adds a New Shopping Dimension

Duty Free Philippines (DFP) runs a vibrant array of luxury stores in airport and downtown network in Manila, Cebu, Laoag and Davao. In recent months, DFP embarked on a series of exciting store openings. [illegible] will change the face of duty free shopping in the Philippines.

From Aquino to Aquino
The Story of Duty Free Phil

It began, as all great journeys do, with a single step. On 3 September 1986, former President Corazon C. Aquino signed into law Executive Order No. 46 (E.O. 46) authorizing the Department of Tourism (DOT), through the Philippine Tourism Authority (PTA), to establish and operate a duty and tax free merchandising system in the Philippines for the purpose of augmenting service facilities for tourists and generating foreign exchange and revenue for the Government. On 28 March 1987, Customs Administration Order No. 3-87 was issued by the Philippine government. This order prescribed the rules, regulations and procedures for the establishment, operation and control of duty free and travel retail stores and warehouses in the country. Duty Free Philippines (DFP) was born.

Over the ensuing quarter of a century DFP would experience incredible highs and tumultuous lows, shocked by periodic political upheaval, legislative uncertainty, and national and regional economic crises.

It has ridden out all those storms, sometimes perilously, to stand today on the cusp of a new era of growth — one characterized by heavy store investment, industry-leading utilization of social media, and an acclaimed multifaceted marketing program that is successfully reaching out to Filipinos all round the globe.

DFP COO Lorenzo Formoso in 1998 at the [illegible] Asia Pacific Raven Fox Awards, when DFP was named best tobacco & confectionery and best gifts/travel retailer.

The Shopkeepers

Duty Free Philippines has been led by several dedicated executives over the past quarter century. Each has worked determinedly to ensure that DFP delivers its mandate to the government, to the Department of Tourism, to its employees, to the Filipino people and to the international traveler.

25 Years

ing with the Family

ppines' 25-Year Journey

[illegible] that time it has become far more than just a duty free retailer. In reaching out to the Filipino diaspora and offering them unique gift-buying service and privileges on their return, DFP has become an integral part of the national travel experience, creating the company a deeper emotional attachment with its customer base. In conversation with management and staff of DFP, that emotion comes from every [illegible] – reflecting a corporate family and national spirit that is as resilient as it is [illegible].

In 2011 the company recorded an impressive [illegible] rise in sales to US$[illegible] million, way ahead of forecast, driving a +37% increase in operating income. The message is clear as DFP slips into well deserved celebration mode – the company is in good health and resurgent mood, and looking forward to the next chapter in an amazing story.

[illegible] adapted from "Duty Free Philippines: 25 Years [illegible]" [illegible]

A Place Fit for Heroes

DUTY FREE PHILIPPINES CORPORATION, in its commitment to further enhance the benefits and privileges granted to OFWs and Balikbayans as mandated by the New Balikbayan Law (Republic Act [illegible]) opened a Balikbayan Plus/OFW Business Center at the Duty Free Philippines Fiestamall complex in Parañaque City. The Business Center is a "one-stop and shop" for the overseas Filipino worker's employment and travel documentation requirements.

Of the People, for the People

Duty Free Philippines is an [illegible] Asian agency of the Philippine government operating under the Department of Tourism. DFP is an institution of the people and for the people. In addition to its commitment to building a stable and responsive company that enhances the professional growth and well-being of its employees, Duty Free Philippines also strives to improve the quality of life of its workforce, their families, local communities and society at large, through a number of projects and activities.

Symbols of Success

A defining moment in young company's development. Premiums were high and many were shot as DFP's Jose Ma. N. Esteban III and Lorenzo "Enchong" E. Formoso, together with colleagues, celebrated the historic 1988 Frontier Award success with President Cory Aquino for "Airport Operator of the Year" and Best Marketing Campaign (for the Traveller Program).

It's more fun in the Philippines

Ronald Pineda & The Fashion of Tech

Today's high-tech gadgets also serve as a fashionable accessory. We often see people "dressing up" their mobile phones in eye-catching cases to match their outfits, or reflect their personal style. For Ronald Pineda, founder and president of retail clothing empire Folded & Hung, the Samsung Galaxy Note exemplifies the fashionable part of being techy [illegible]

"We're one of the Marie France team, your partner in making sure you achieve your weight-loss target. With our proven slimming systems, our qualified medical staff, trained consultants, nutritionists, and therapists, you will lose those excess fatty pounds. And if you don't lose weight you get your money back."

"When I hit my 40s, it became harder to lose weight. I was 134 lbs. and with my 5'1 height, [illegible] I went to Marie France – I am now 108 lbs. Treatments firmed and toned my body – no more sags. I feel great and look younger. Give Marie France a call – ask about the Money-Back Guarantee program."

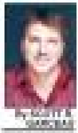
Hero sandwich



By SCOTT R. GARCEAU

Superheroes never really played well together in the world of Marvel Comics. With great power comes great ego, and a tendency to believe your powers are better than everyone else's.
